

lots of kisses - I'll finish this in the morning - dear.
Just finished my breakfast & figured up my ticket on yesterday's game - 38 - 51 - No Good.
Such is the life of a gambler. How's my Bobbie Boy & the rest. Am expecting a letter from you this morning. If I don't get it, look out. Is Tom still milking the cow - Does she come home or does he
have to go after her?
Say Daddie, would it be fun to build a
house & furnish it just like we would like to.

Wouldn't it be jolly to go hunting for some special piece of furniture we wanted - I'd take months instead of hours to get my things again. And when I got through it would be a home worth having. When we get the Ashworth place, will do just that, won't we.
Well dear boy it's near mid time & I want
this to go this morning so Bye Bye with an Ocean of love with a kiss on every wave to you & each one of my Babes. Always.

Great Falls 4-28-26.

Dear Little Sweetheart of mine.

Just got in from home and got your letter I was so pleased to hear from you again. I stopped in at the store and looked in the mail box + saw a letter there from you to your mother so I figured I might possibly get one. How are you feeling dear one of mine I sure hope you are better + that you continue to improve also all the others how is Eva say scoop don't be jealous but I have thought a lot about that girl since I have left she has come into my mind several times why should that be can you explain it if so let me hear, but I sure did like her the very first time I saw her and that was only a very short time. Every one is O.K. at Armington meeky may be coming down with the measles but out side of that things are fine Bob is out and around again he walks much better than he did at first dear little kids I sure hope meek don't have them at least until after he goes to Cascade that would be much harder on him than the measles

I saw your father this a.m. as I was going home on 44 & gave him the letter and he seemed as tickled as the kids do when they hear from you he said he would write to you and I think he will, I told your mother that I thought I would come over about the 16th of May, she flew off the handle and told me she thought I should not go that it would cost so much I did not say any thing but I was thinking quite a little not any bad thoughts about her but "you know" as Bobbie says. a lot of other things I think I probably will have my own way about it

You won't have to hurry with Edna's dress she said she would not let her wear it if it did get here & that made me mad again & I just told her that probly she would spoil it if she did wear it but did not mean it might as well side in with her, probly I should not ~~say these things & am not~~

Complaining the dear woman is doing every thing in the world to help us. but you must just have raised me up wrong & am learning to keep quiet and not bring up things where there might be an argument so that is that no hard feelings but hurry and get well then there may be
